

Byron Stewart Bio

Byron Stewart is the CEO and Founder of Mr. Purpose LLC, a motivational speaking and coaching company geared towards helping people discover their true purpose in life and providing them with the tools to navigate the road ahead. The organization was started by Byron Stewart as he began to look at his own life and was wondering why he was feeling unsatisfied in his career and lost when it came to life planning for the future. Byron believes that people are usually in one of four places in their life's purpose 1. Discovery Phase (Choosing a destination) 2. Navigation (how to get to the destination) 3. Reroute (dealing with obstacles along the way) 4. Arrival (you've made it to your destination, now what)

What sets the Mr. Purpose LLC apart is its unique curriculum and methodology. Unlike many other companies, Byron wants to make sure that he provides clients with information and the supportive encouragement needed to succeed, but also with an action plan (road map) and life-sustaining tools that enable them to deal with challenges along the way.

Byron has inspired a variety of audiences including local high schools, colleges, and groups of young professionals. Specifically, Mr. Stewart has served as the 2012 Howard University School of Communications Commencement speaker, the 2013 Kennedy High School Graduation Speaker, the 2014 Springbrook High School Graduation Speaker, and spoke on a panel during the 2016 Congressional Black Caucus Youth Issue Forum week on the "State of the Black Middle Class." Furthermore, Mr. Stewart has also served as an assembly speaker at Anacostia High School, KIPP DC, SEED School and Cesar Chavez Public Charter School. Through Mr. Purpose LLC, Mr. Stewart has found a way to directly speak into the minds of others while also making a measurable impact on his listeners' lives by providing reinforcement of the principles he teaches during seminars and trainings. With a speaking style that employs his charismatic and charming personality, Mr. Stewart is uniquely able to reach multitudes of people willing to make a change for the better. Thus far, the proudest accomplishment has been the formed partnership with the Montgomery County Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Aunt Hattie's House, and the National Center for Children and Families within the EMBODI Program. Byron meets on a bimonthly basis with the group to discuss various topics affecting the youth in their communities. Mr. Stewart was also selected as one of the 2014 Top 30 under 30 by 93.9 WKYS for his involvement in the community.

Mr. Stewart is a native of Silver Spring Maryland where he attended Springbrook High School and graduated with honors in 2002. He went on to attend Howard University where he served as the Howard University Student Association President in 2005. He completed his matriculation at Howard University in 2006 and advanced his learning with a Masters in Public Administration from Syracuse University the following year in 2007. Byron currently resides in Atlanta Georgia with his wife Lindsey and their cat Stokely Carmichael.
